

The Living Green Conference is coming back to Coppertop Church this February. On February 4th from 10:00-4:00, Living Green by the Lake will be held at First United Methodist Church (230 E. Skyline Parkway, Duluth).

This year's conference will include:

- keynote by Mike Link and Kate Crowley about their full circle hike of Lake Superior and environmental change
- workshops on energy efficiency, living sustainably, permaculture, urban agriculture, faith communities and the environment, the Natural Step process, climate change and adaptation, and the Transition Town movement
- 30+ vendors exhibiting green and sustainable information and products
- family fun room
- food

Tickets are $10 at the door for adults, $5 for 13-17, and free for 12 and under. Sponsorship and vendor applications can be obtained through Jodi@ecolibrum3.org.

This year's conference is hosted by Ecolibrum3 and organizing committee members representing WLSSD, League of Women Voters, Minnesota Environmental Partnership, Lake Superior Energy Association, Lake Superior College, the City of Duluth, and the Duluth Energy Efficiency Program.
